The message was read; and,

On motion by Mr. Bradley,

It was agreed, by unanimous consent, that the nominations for military appointments therein contained, from the Michigan Territory, be now considered. Whereupon,

Resolved, That the Senate do advise and consent to the appointments, agreeably to the nominations respectively.

On motion,

Ordered, That the Secretary lay this resolution before the President of the United States.

Ordered, That the other nominations lie for consideration.

The following written message was received from the President of the United States, by Mr Coles, his Secretary:

To the Senate of the United States:

I nominate Oliver Forward, of New York, to be Collector of the district of Buffalo Creek, and Inspector of the Revenue for the port of Buffalo Town, vice Erastus Granger, resigned.

John Linton, Jun. of Virginia, to be Collector of the district of Dumfries, and Inspector of the Revenue for the port of Dumfries, vice John Linton, Senior, resigned.

Demprey Jones, of North Carolina, to be Surveyor of the port of Swansborough, and Inspector of the Revenue for the said port, vice Thomas Dudley, deceased.

Massey Simms, of Maryland, to be Surveyor of the port of Nanjemoy, and Inspector of the Revenue for the same, vice William Jackson, deceased.

JAMES MADISON.

March 6th, 1812.

The message was read.

Ordered, That it lie for consideration.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the military nominations contained in the message of the President of the United States, of the 25th of February; and,

On motion by Mr. Campbell, of Tennessee,

Resolved, That the military nominations therein contained, from Tennessee, be referred to a committee, to consist of two members, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That Mr. Anderson and Mr. Campbell, of Tennessee, be the committee.

Mr. Turner, from the committee appointed the 4th instant, on the military nominations contained in said message, from North Carolina, reported; and the Senate proceeded in their consideration.

On motion by Mr. Hunter,

Resolved, That the military nominations contained in said message, from Rhode Island, be referred to a committee, to consist of two members, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That Mr. Howell and Mr. Hunter, be the committee.

Ordered, That the nominations contained in said message, not otherwise disposed of, be postponed.

TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1812.

The following written message was received from the President of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his Secretary:

To the Senate of the United States:

I nominate the persons whose names are stated in the list accompanying the enclosed letter, of March 9th, from the Secretary of War, for the appointments respectively proposed.

I change the nominations for military appointments, now before the Senate, according to the alterations and corrections proposed in the list annexed to the enclosed letter, of March 7, from the Secretary of War.

I nominate Moses Porter, now a Major, to be a Colonel of the regiment of Light Artillery, in the service of the United States.

JAMES MADISON.

March 10th, 1812.

WAR DEPARTMENT, March 7th, 1812.

SIR: I have the honor of proposing, for your approbation, the following alterations and corrections in the several lists of candidates for appointments in the Army of the United States, now before the Senate.

END OF THE THIRTY-THIRD SESSION.

CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS.

TWELFTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1812.

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Harper and Mr. Fisk, two of their members. Mr. Harper, Chairman.

Mr. President: The House of Representatives have passed a "resolution authorizing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the British American Continental Provinces," in which they request the concurrence of the Senate. And they withdrew.

The resolution was read, as follows:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That in case it shall be deemed necessary, in order to vindicate the just rights, or to secure the safety of the United States, to invade the provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, or either of them, the President of the United States be, and he hereby is, authorized and empowered to issue a proclamation, addressed to the inhabitants of said provinces, assuring them, in the name of the people of these States, that in case the said provinces, or any of them, shall come into the possession of this government, the inhabitants of such province or provinces shall be secured and protected in the full enjoyment of their lives, liberty, property and religion, in as full and ample manner as the same are secured to the people of the United States by their constitutions: and that the said proclamation be promulgated and circulated, in the manner which, in the opinion of the President, shall be best calculated to give it general publicity.

Ordered, That the resolution pass to the second reading.

MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1812.

The resolution from the House of Representatives, "authorizing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the British American Continental Provinces," was read the second time; and,

On motion by Mr. Anderson,

Resolved, That it be referred to a select committee, to consist of five members, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That Mr. Anderson, Mr. Smith, of Maryland, Mr. Smith, of New York, Mr. Dana, and Mr. Varnum, be the committee.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1812.

The following confidential message was received from the President of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his Secretary:

To the Senate of the United States:

I transmit to the Senate a report of the Secretary of War, complying with their resolution of the 19th instant.

JAMES MADISON.

June 23d, 1812.

The message and report were read.

Mr. Anderson, from the committee to whom was referred the resolution from the House of Representatives, authorizing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the British American Continental Provinces, reported it without amendment.

THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1812.

The resolution from the House of Representatives, authorizing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the British American Continental Provinces, was resumed as in Committee of the Whole; and Mr. Gaillard was requested to take the chair. And, after debate,

The President resumed the Chair, and Mr. Gaillard reported, that the Senate, as in Committee of the Whole, do not concur in the resolution; and,

On the question to agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole,

On motion by Mr. Bibb,

It was agreed that the question be taken by yeas and nays.

On motion by Mr. Anderson,

To recommit the original resolution for the purpose of amendment,

It was determined in the negative.

On the question to agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole, it passed in the affirmative: Yeas, 18; Nays, 13.

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Bayard, Bradley, Brent, Condit, Dana, Franklin, Giles, Gilman, Goodrich, Gregg, Hunter, Lambert, Leib, Lloyd, Pope, Reed, Smith, of Maryland, and Smith, of New York.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bibb, Campbell, of Tennessee, Crawford, Cutts, Gaillard, Howell, Robinson, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

So it was

Resolved, That the Senate do not concur in the resolution of the House of Representatives.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1812.

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Hall, two of their members. Mr. Mitchell, Chairman.

Mr. President: The House of Representatives have passed a bill, entitled “An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes,” in which they request the concurrence of the Senate, and that the bill be considered confidentially. And they withdrew.

The bill last brought up for concurrence, was read, as follows:

“An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes.

“Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to occupy and hold, the whole or any part of East Florida, including Amelia Island, and also those parts of West Florida which are not now in the possession and under the jurisdiction of the United States.

“Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of occupying and holding the country aforesaid, and of affording protection to the inhabitants under the authority of the United States, the President may employ such parts of the military and naval force of the United States as he may deem necessary.

“Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That for defraying the necessary expenses, one hundred thousand dollars are hereby appropriated, to be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, and to be applied for the purposes aforesaid, under the direction of the President.

“Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That until further provision shall be made by Congress, the President shall be, and he hereby is, empowered to establish within the country he may acquire by this act, a temporary government, the civil and military authorities of which shall be vested in such person and persons as he may appoint, and be exercised in such manner as he may direct: Provided, that he shall take due care for the preservation of social order, and for securing to the inhabitants the enjoyment of their personal rights, their religion, and their property: And provided, also, that the section of country herein designated, that is situated to the eastward of the river Perdido, may be the subject of further negotiation.”

Ordered, That it pass to a second reading.

On motion by Mr. Smith, of Maryland,

Resolved, That a committee be appointed, to consist of two members, to notify the House of Representatives that the Senate do not concur in the resolution authorizing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the British American Continental Provinces.

Ordered, That Mr. Smith, of Maryland, and Mr. Varnum, be the committee.

Mr. Smith, of Maryland, reported that they had delivered the message.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1812.

The bill from the House of Representatives, entitled "An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes," was read the second time; and,

On motion by Mr. Tait,

Resolved, That it be referred to a select committee, to consist of five members, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That Mr. Tait, Mr. Bradley, Mr. Giles, Mr. Bayard, and Mr. Bibb, be the committee.

TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1812.

Mr. Tait, from the committee to whom was referred the bill from the House of Representatives, entitled "An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes;" reported the bill without amendment.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1812.

Mr. Smith, of Maryland, submitted the following motion for consideration:

That the Secretary of War be directed to lay before the Senate, in confidence, returns of the volunteers who may have offered their services under the act for raising 50,000 volunteers, particularizing the States in which such volunteers reside.

Mr. Gaillard was requested to take the Chair; and

The bill from the House of Representatives, entitled "An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes," was resumed, and considered as in Committee of the Whole; and

The instructions of the President of the United States on the subject, communicated by the committee to whom the said bill was referred, were read.

And a motion for amendment was submitted by Mr. Crawford; and, after debate,

On motion by Mr. Smith, of Maryland,

The further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1812.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the bill, entitled "An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes," was resumed, and considered as in Committee of the Whole; and

Mr. Gaillard was requested to take the Chair.

On motion by Mr. Crawford, he was permitted to amend his motion, made yesterday, as follows:

“And be it further enacted, That if the United States, in the prosecution of the present war against the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, should obtain possession of the British provinces in North America, or either of them, that the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to establish within the same, a temporary government; and the military, civil, and judicial powers thereof, shall be vested in such person and persons, and be exercised in such manner as he may direct, for the protection and maintenance of the inhabitants of such province or provinces, in the full enjoyment of their property, liberty, and religion: provided, that the principles upon which such temporary government shall be established, shall form no obstacle to the restoration of peace between the two nations.”

And on motion to agree to the amendment,

It was determined in the affirmative: Yeas, 20; Nays, 10.

On motion by Mr. Bibb,

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bibb, Bradley, Brent, Campbell, of Tennessee, Condit, Crawford, Cutts, Franklin, Gaillard, Giles, Howell, Leib, Pope, Robinson, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. Bayard, German, Gilman, Goodrich, Horsey, Hunter, Lambert, Lloyd, Smith, of Maryland, and Smith, of New York.

On motion by Mr. Tait, to amend the bill as follows:

“And be it further enacted, That this act be not printed or published, unless directed by the President of the United States; any law or usage to the contrary, notwithstanding.”

On the question to agree to this amendment,

It was determined in the affirmative: Yeas, 23; Nays, 7.

On motion by Mr. German,

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bayard, Bibb, Bradley, Brent, Campbell, of Tennessee, Condit, Crawford, Cutts, Franklin, Gaillard, Giles, Howell, Leib, Pope, Robinson, Smith, of Maryland, Smith, of New-York, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. German, Gilman, Goodrich, Horsey, Hunter, Lambert, and Lloyd.

The President resumed the Chair, and Mr. Gaillard reported the bill, amended.

On the question, Shall the bill pass to a third reading, as amended?

It was determined in the affirmative: Yeas, 15; Nays, 13.

On motion by Mr. Tait,

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bibb, Brent, Campbell, of Tennessee, Condit, Crawford, Gaillard, Howell, Leib, Robinson, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. Bayard, Dana, Franklin, German, Gilman, Goodrich, Horsey, Hunter, Lambert, Lloyd, Pope, Smith, of Maryland, Smith, of New York.

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1812.

The amendments to the bill, entitled “An act authorizing the President to take possession of a tract of country lying south of the Mississippi Territory and of the State of Georgia, and for other purposes,” were reported by the committee correctly engrossed; and the bill was read the third time, as amended.

On motion by Mr. Bayard, to postpone the further consideration thereof to the first Monday in November next,

It was determined in the negative: Yeas, 14; Nays, 16.

On motion by Mr. Bayard,

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Bayard, Bradley, Dana, German, Giles, Gilman, Goodrich, Horsey, Hunter, Lambert, Lloyd, Pope, Smith, of Maryland, and Smith, of New York.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bibb, Brent, Campbell, of Tennessee, Condit, Crawford, Franklin, Gaillard, Howell, Leib, Robinson, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

On the question, “Shall the bill pass, as amended?”

It was determined in the negative: Yeas, 14; Nays, 16.

On motion by Mr. Campbell, of Tennessee,

The yeas and nays having been required by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative, are—Messrs. Anderson, Bibb, Brent, Campbell, of Tennessee, Condit, Crawford, Franklin, Gaillard, Robinson, Tait, Taylor, Turner, Varnum, and Worthington.

Those who voted in the negative, are—Messrs. Bayard, Bradley, Dana, German, Giles, Gilman, Goodrich, Horsey, Howell, Hunter, Lambert, Leib, Lloyd, Pope, Smith, of Maryland, and Smith, of New York.

So it was

Resolved, That the Senate do not concur in the said bill.

On motion,

Resolved, That a committee be appointed, to consist of two members, to notify the House of Representatives accordingly.

Ordered, That Mr. Smith, of Maryland, and Mr. Leib, be the committee. And Mr. Smith, of Maryland, reported that they had delivered the message.
